(1) See that as "d" is the original form of "th"

In the beginning God created the Heaven...

And the Earth...

And the earth was (can also be 'became') without Form... God Fordid the earth of old. Sinking the old land masses and darkening the sky...ending all life...

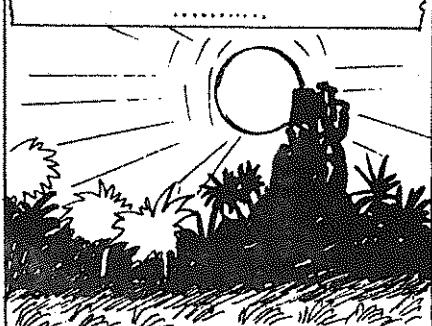

Light God made, giving the first 'new'day. On the second he made (remade?) the sky and called it heaven. But it was on the third day He made the land masses...

Then on the same (3rd)day, He made the grasses and greenery and whose seed was in itself after his own kind...

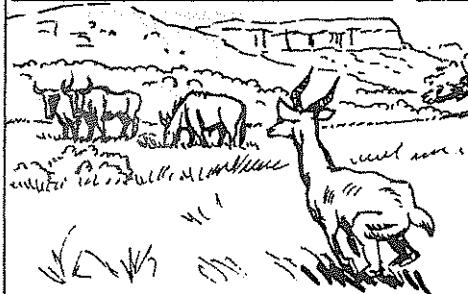

And on the fourth day God made the lights, the stars, the sun and the moon.

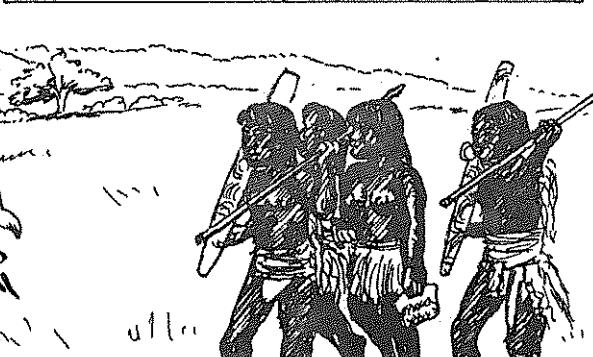

On the fifth day God brought forth Life in the Waters and filled the skies with all manner of fowl...

On the sixth day God brought forth the creeping and wild beasts...

It was on this same day He made Man(mankind), male and female, not one but many, and many of kind...

On the Seventh day the Almighty rested from his work and sanctified it... The earliest of races date back between ± 30,000 to ± 50,000 years. All these were 'Pre-Adamic'.
Today we see only variations of such living with Adamic Man (And Adamic variations), these being Negroid and Mongoloid Man. However in the years forby others lived which were only of their own kind; Such as the long gene Palaeo Indians of ± 8000 BC and (the only recently extinct) Tasmanian Aborigines, of which it is claimed, were unable to breed with other races, even with main land Aborigines.

± 8000 BC, A long headed race in Jordan began making houses of mud bricks...

The dwellings were round and domed...

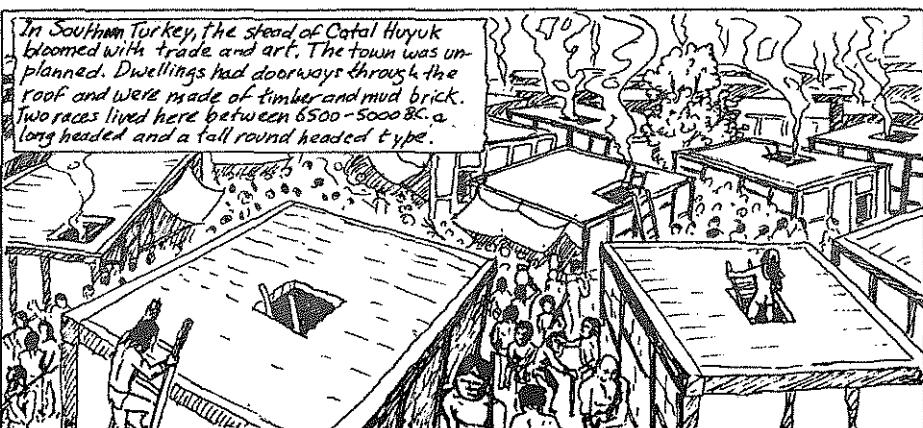

But their culture ended... around that time...

wood and stone tools were being used in another culture, that of Mesopotamia. ± 5000 BC saw pottery

In Southern Turkey, the stand of Catal Huyuk bloomed with trade and art. The town was unplanned. Dwellings had doorways through the roof and were made of timber and mud brick. Two races lived here between 6500 - 5000 BC, a long headed and a tall round headed type.

But thus far, each culture, even the most advanced, was without the written word and lived for the greater part a life of hunting & gathering. Though small scale farming did take place in the cultures such as that of Sumer (Mesopotamia), Egypt and China. True farming and town building together with the written word, came later, after the advent of Adamic man ± 4000 BC. Till then all life forms were creations, i.e. made from nought...

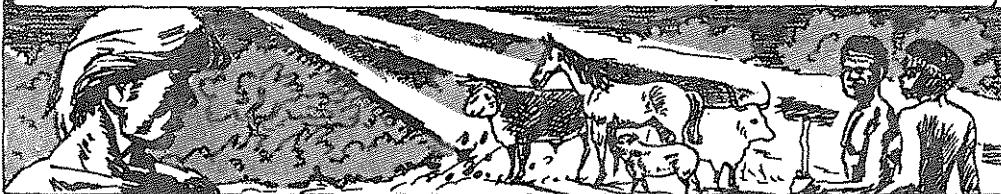

...as yet was not a man to fill (farm) the ground. (Gen 2:5)

God planted a garden in the east where from a river flowed into four, the Pison, Gihon, Hiddekel, and Euphrates. This phenomenon cannot be found in the Middle East but only in the Pamir-Plateau north of India. In the local tongue one of the rivers is still called, Gihon. Today's Euphrates is probably so named in much the same way old names are given to new places in colonies.

But the Lord said it is not good that the man should be alone...

...and began to make from the ground every beast of the field, i.e. all life to help cultivate the ground, thus not wild ones, these beasts of the field (domestic) can perhaps be another man like too.

But even after all these shapings there was not yet a helper fitting for Adam... So God caused him to sleep...

And from a rib taken from Adam, God began to make a woman fitting for Adam...

Note: Ten Hebrew words were translated to the word 'Man'. Adam was one such word and means a Man 'that can blush, be ruddy, to show blood in the face, whiteness & ruddiness, differing from swarthiness or blackness.' Thus Adam was first of white race.

*Although a serpent type beast is drawn here, it is quite reasonable to take the word "serpent" to be a name given to a person of a pre-Adamic race who is carrying out the tempting work...

5 However, it must be stressed, the churches have created this beast image. A deep study tends to support this serpent being a weakness of mans' flesh, being in conflict with ones' own natural will to break God's will.

For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as Gods, knowing good and evil.

And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and it was pleasant to the eyes...

...she took of the fruit thereof!!!

and did eat, and gave also unto her husband, and he did eat

Their eyes were both opened and they knew they were naked!

6

So the will of the flesh, (the lust of the flesh, the pride of life and the lust of the eyes) has been Adamic Man's undoing.

Then the Lord God called unto Adam: "Where art thou?" And he said appearing with an apron of fig leaves.

"Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of where of I commanded thee that thou shouldst not eat?"

The woman who thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat...

What is this thou hast done?

The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat...

Because thou hast done this thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field. Upon thy belly shall thou go, And dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life...

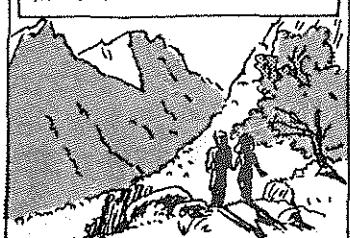

And God told the woman that child bearing would be in pain, her children cause sorrow and she shall be ruled by her husband... And because Adam hearkened to his wife and eat the forbidden fruit he would have to till the earth in hardship, until he returns to the earth from whence he came...

And God clothed them in coats of skins...

So now man knew good and evil. To stop them from living forever, God sent the pair out of the garden so that they could not take from the Tree of Life! The land God drove them into was most likely the Tarim Basin...

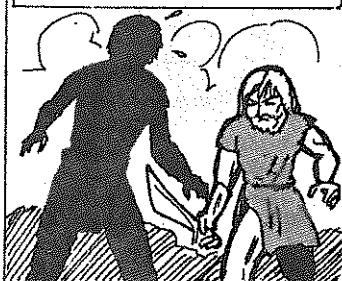

Their first children were, Cain (a tiller of earth) and Abel (a keeper of sheep)...

7  What we witness here is a classic case of "passing the buck", refusing to take responsibility for one's own doings. He blames the wife, she in turn blames a fictitious creator, so God plays along but still meets out correction...

All went well till one day, after each brother made an offering to the Lord, trouble brewed. Cain was angry that Abel's offering was preferred by the Lord to his...

Soon the anger turned to rage!

Cain carried on as if nothing took place, when the Lord said...

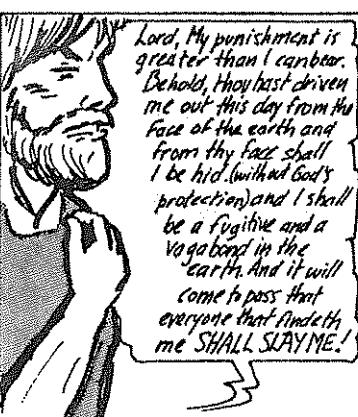

I know not! Am I my brother's keeper?

What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground. And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand. When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength. A fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth!

Lord, My punishment is greater than I can bear. Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the Face of the earth and from thy face shall I be hid (without God's protection) and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth. And it will come to pass that everyone that findeth me SHALL SLAY ME!

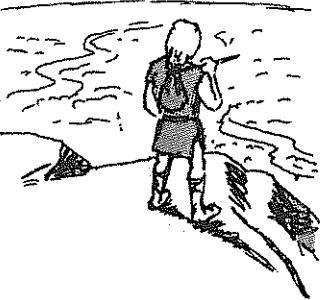

But the Lord would not that the other races would slay him, and the Lord said...

Therefore, whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him seven fold!

And Cain went to the land of Nod east of Eden where he met a woman to be his wife...

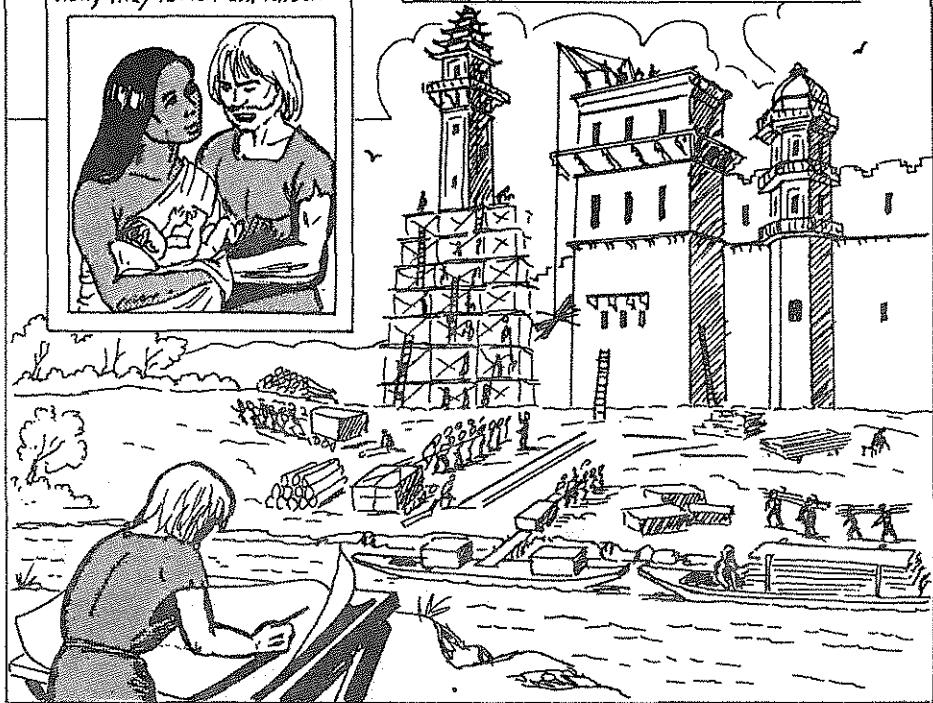

(c) There are some that believe Cain had a sister that would be incest. Prohibited by God. But this is not so as Cain had no sisters yet. He had a wife before his parents conceived again.

(1) city

Cain's non Adamic-woman bare him a son in this land of Nod, they named him Enoch

For this race he builded a great stead⁽¹⁾ and named it after his son, Enoch...

Enoch's offspring brought many new skills which soon spread throughout ancient cultures.

Jubal was the father of musical instruments such as the harp and organ...

And Tubalcain, an instructor of every artificer brass and iron. This knowledge spread around 3000 BC....

Meanwhile, west of Nod and east of Eden; Adam and his wife Eve were blessed with another son, Seth. It is through Seth's line, his offspring called themselves upon the name of the Lord, i.e.; The 'Sons of God'. All pre-Adamic races were called the 'Sons of Men'. While another race became known as the 'Beasts of the field'.

These Sons of God lived at that time long lives; when one of Seth's direct offspring had 3 sons - Shem, Ham and Japheth, this man Noah was 500 years old!

The dwellers this part of the earth, both Sons of God and Sons of Men, began to grow in number greatly...

The Sons of God (Adamic Men) saw the daughters of the Sons of Men (pre-Adamic Men) that they were fair...

And they began to take daughters of other races (Gen 6). They took also daughters of Men of power of other races and bare children of them... (6)

And God saw the great wickedness of this and it carried on non stop, and it grieved the Lord!

All flesh had corrupted (turned to become unpure of creed) his way and through this offspring of impure creed, the earth was filled with bloody crimes... God swore thus to firdo them from the earth...

Just shut it! No one will help there!

Only Noah was perfect in his generations (taken from Tamiyini to mean 'of pure offspring')

'Verily I say unto thee, send away thy wife, thou fordoest God's work. Change! Lest God fordoes thee!'

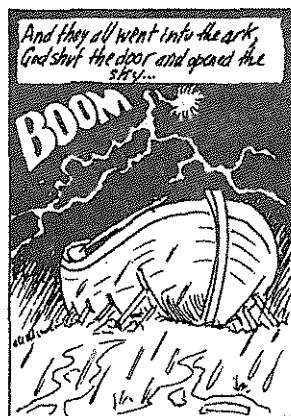

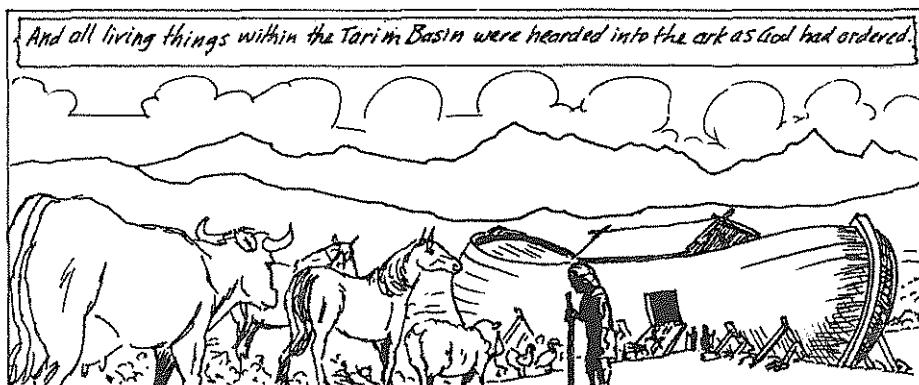

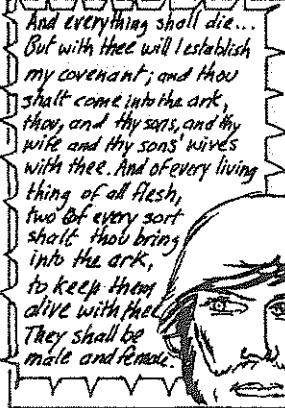

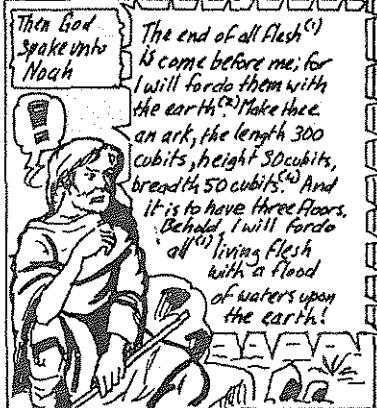

For 120 years Noah preached to his kinsfolk to change their ways...

(1) destroy
(2) Some believe angels and man took in wedlock, but Jesus said Angels and Man can not take (breed or have any physical contact) in marriage

(2) earth, translated from 'erets' which can also mean 'a land'.

(1-2-3) Means of that which is known to Noah just as the term 'the Roman World' did not mean their riches spanned the globe.

(4) ±450x145x75 Feet.

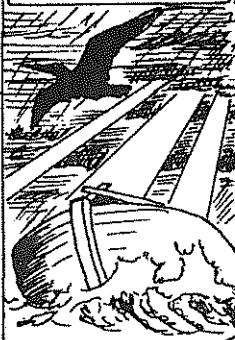

(i) not to be confused with Jews

40 days & 40 nights of Rain drowned the Tarim Basin around 2344 or 2348 BC. This area is referred to in Indian tradition as 'The Gate of Pari dise.' The Bible backs up the claim the flood to be limited by not world wide, in Joshua when he spoke to the Israelites many years later, "Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time..."

Even today, the area is empty of all life in the basin. There are also signs of an all fording flood, this and earthquakes in turn lifted the Pamir Plateau (Eden) to its present height, thus changing its climate to what it is today...

After 40 days Noah sent out a raven

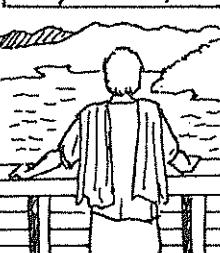

Then he sent forth a dove...

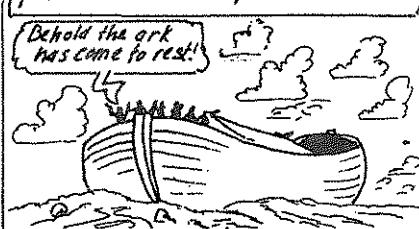

On the first flight the dove came back without rest but 7 days later after a 2nd flight, it came back with a sign, an olive leaf, clearly from a tree on land untouched by flood waters...

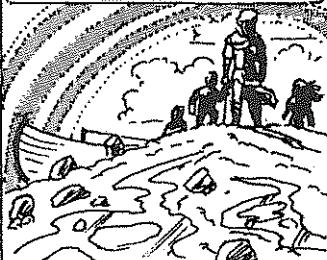

After the dove had not come back until third flight Noah removed the covering of the Ark as they neared dryland.

With the upward thrust of the Pamir Plateau, land north and east lowered, allowing for the flood waters to wash away, flowing into northern China. Chinese history backs this with records of great devastating floods for years as the basin emptied...

Chinese history backs Bible account of Noah. This history has Noah appearing on the Tien Shan Range with a rainbow. The bow being a token of a covenant God made between Noah and all other living things...

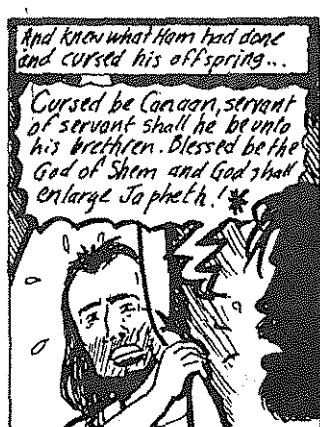

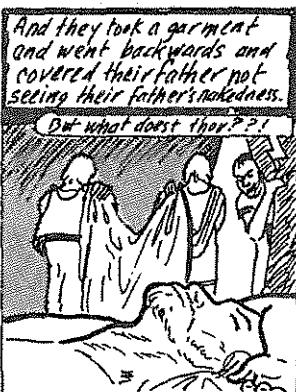

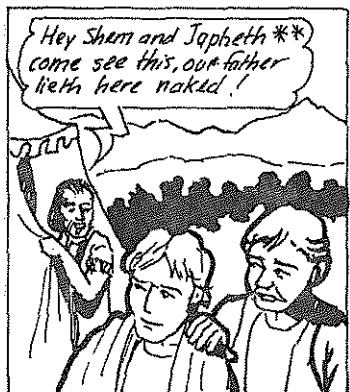

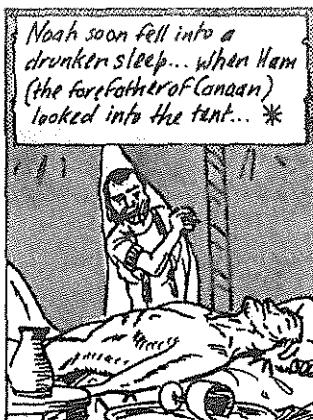

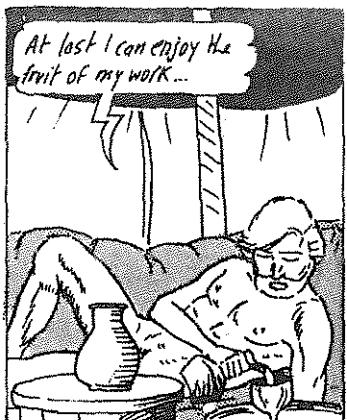

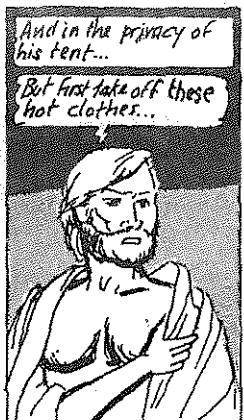

After some time Noah planted a vineyard...

I could do with an uplifting drink...

At this point it must be made clear that this curse stands today. Although Ham's offspring reaches great might, this they do through crooked means and never honestly. Nimrod his grandson became a mighty leader in Babylon. From the same family came Canaan from whom the Canaanites (who are logically inferior Babylonians). As we will later see, Esau (an offspring from Shem) wed into Canaanite stock. So too his children, making them Canaanites but also called Edomites.

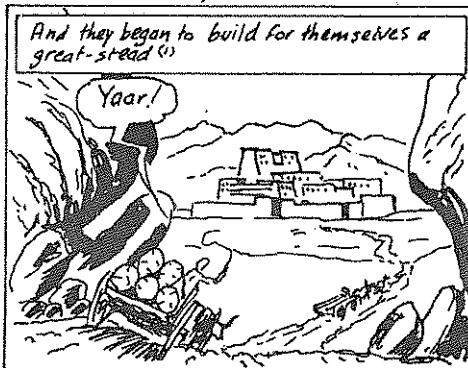

These became the carriers of the Babylonian-Jewish Talmudic Traditions (known also as the Traditions of the Elders). We see that the Jews are thus largely not Israelites at all! In Jer. 24:9 they'll be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse. In Isa. 65:15 "And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord God shall stay thee and call his servants by another name." Jews called the same but God's servants, Israelites became known as Christians.

* This comic shows Noah to be angered because Ham saw him naked. But the Bible states Ham saw Noah's "Nakedness". This can also mean Ham saw that of a body of Noah's ownership, in other words, Noah's wife, indeed a theory suggests Ham laid with Noah's wife and therefore Noah cursed Ham and his offspring.

 The Ashkenaz Jews Claim the title of Ashkenaz in acknowledgement of Askenaz being one of their forefathers. Ashkenaz is a grand son of Japheth. The churches say the Europeans are of Japheth and the Jews of Shem, yet the Jews clearly destroy this false claim by admitting Japheth to be their forefather.

(1) city

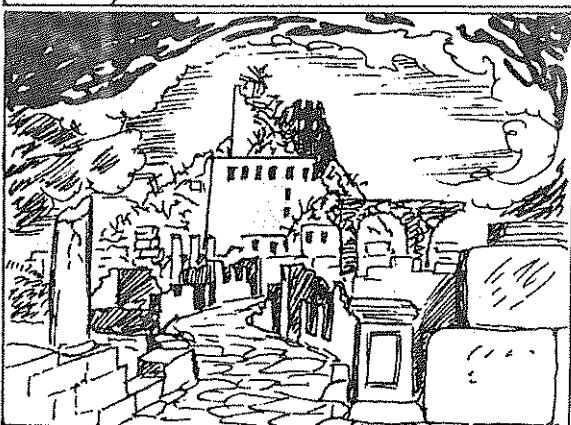

They took pride in their undertakings and to crown it the tallest of buildings they wished to build. A tower to honor themselves reaching to the heavens (2) symbolic of a unity of mankind (without God) (3)

But God stepped in and broke this oneness, seeing to it that such a oneness can never be made by man through the confusing of the tongue...

Work came to a grinding halt and the great-stead was left and fell into rot, the folk confused and scattered abroad by the hand of God...

(2) It is on this principle skyscrapers are built, such as the World Trade Centre, it makes a statement, 'We did it - without God!'

(3) like the U.N.
it too always fails.

Note: The hoards from the East learnt their skills from Cain.

ALTHOUGH the events of Sodom and Gomorrah are important, they are well covered in many books and have not fallen prey to harsh twisting and thus in this book needs no clearing. It is matters of Biblical/historical nature of great importance to today that I deal with, here to help wipe away many mis understandings...

HE great importance are Noah's lines. From them came Eber (shem's grandson). Many years later, Eber's off spring left their marks throughout Europe. The name Eber can be found in; Iber-ion Peninsula (Spain), Aber-deen, Aberdare and so forth...

THROUGH this line came also Abram around 1900 B.C. Eber, Abram, Isaac and others in this line are wrongly called 'Jews'. To be a Jew is to be of a religious order founded some 1500 years AFTER Abrams birth! The Jewish religion (just as Christianity) have the O.T. as a basis of faith. That does not make the O.T. a Jewish book. Basically Jewry did not exist until their book, the Babylonian Talmud was written in Babylon c. 500BC. Jewry was cleaved to by some Israelites, but most cleaved only to the teachings of 'The Way' O.T.

The Way
TALMUD
N.T. Christianity

'The Way' became known as Christianity with the advent of Christ, this is what breedites followed. Jewish Canaanite leaders, the Pharisees, however rejected Christ and carried on with the Talmud and thus kept Jewry alive. This must be understood if the history of the world is at all to be understood...

c. 1913 B.C.; Sarai, Abram's wife could bare him no children. She had a hand maid, an Egyptian, called Hagar...

The lord hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go unto my maid it may be that I may obtain children by her...

So she went to fetch her hand maiden

Hagar, I wish to speak to you

And Sarah outlined her thoughts to Hagar and Hagar understood

Thank you, I'm grateful...

And Abram was given the maid, But in time when Sarai saw Hagar conceive, Sarai became annoyed that her maid was blessed with child. Sarai then hardly dealt with the maid and Hagar ran away...

And the angle of the Lord found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness and said unto her...

Hagar, Sarai's maid whence comest thou? And whither wilt thou go?

Note: Abraham not only had offspring from Hagar, the hand maiden, but also from his second wife Keturah as well as his first wife Sarai.

Return to thy mistress, and submit thyself under her hands, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly. Behold, thou art with child and shalt bare a son, Ye shall name him Ishmael, because the Lord hath heard thy affliction. And he will be a wild man, his hand will be against every man and everyone's hand against him.

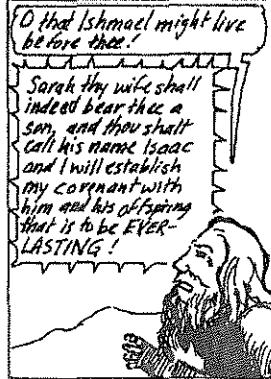

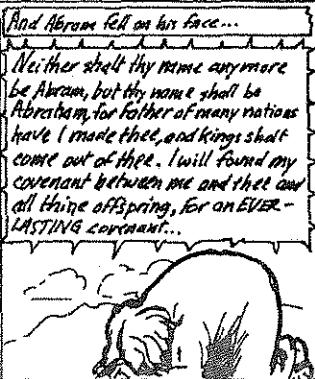

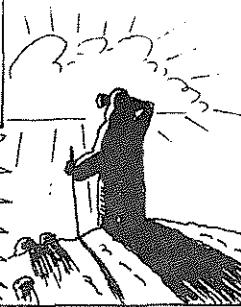

As for Ishmael, God blessed him and made his offspring a great nation of 12 princes: today, Arabia is that nation of 12 kingdoms...

And Hagar bare a son for Abram...

And when Abram was 90 years old and I, the Lord appeared unto him and said,

(1) This in itself proves Abram was not a Jew. The Jews were never promised many nations. Only the Israelites WHO ARE NOT JEWS, as this book will show.

And so Hagar left, but in the wilderness God comforted her and in fact her son Ishmael grew strong and took a wife out of Egypt, thus the birth of the Arab race had begun. Meanwhile, Abraham underwent a holy test. After fulfilling his task, his offspring were promised, by the Almighty, to be countless like the stars and like grains of sand on the shores.

At the age of 40 Isaac took a wife, Rebekah. When she conceived, her children struggled within her. She asked the Lord wherefore. He answered, "Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of folk shall be separated from thy bowels, and the one folk shall be stronger than the other folk, and the elder shall serve the younger..." She later gave birth to twins. The first born was covered in red hair... He was called Esau.

The second out clutched Esau's heel. He was called, Jacob. It must be understood that the first born inherits the birthright... As they grew, Esau became a hunter, and Jacob dwelling in tents. When one day Jacob sold his birthright, Esau came in full of hunger...

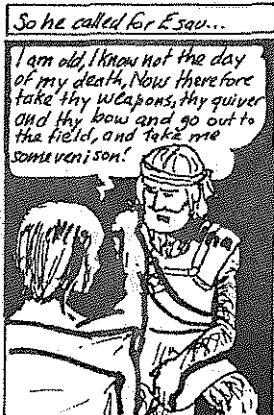

And so Esau sold his birthright. This being a clear sign that he, just as his offspring have little trust in God...

(1) It seems Esau had a love for RED, he was thus also known as Edom, to mean Red (2)

The right of many nations and kings was now Jacob's. And when Esau was 40 he took a wife, Judith, a Hittite (also known as Canaanite), thus not of Abraham's seed and therefore not having the right in God's eyes to hold Abraham's birthright. This adulterated (mixed) wedlock grieved both his parents... When Isaac became old and blind, he chose to bless the birthright of his most loved son Esau, not knowing of course that Esau had sold it to his twin brother...

(2) this RED was a hallmark of his offspring which even today live under the RED banner, that of the red system (communism)

And Esau set off to hunt deer...

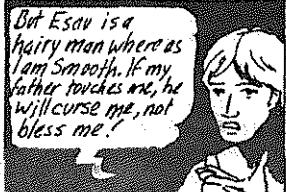

Thus Rebekah told Jacob what she over heard and ordered him...

Go to the flock and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats and I will make them savory meat for thy father. And thou shall bring it to thy father that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death...

But Esau is a hairy man where as I am smooth. If my father touches me, he will curse me, not bless me!

Upon me be thy curse my son, now do as I said and fetch me the kids...

Here are the kids... Good, I have put aside some of Esau's clothes, but those on...

And so Isaac was fooled and blessed Jacob. When Esau came back and learnt from his father he'd already made the blessing, he cried bitterly...

And wear these skins lest he touches thee...

I am sorry, thy brother hath taken away thy blessing. I have made him thine heir and all his brethren have I given to him for servants... By thy sword shalt thou live and shalt serve thy brother...

Esau arose in a rage to search for his brother...

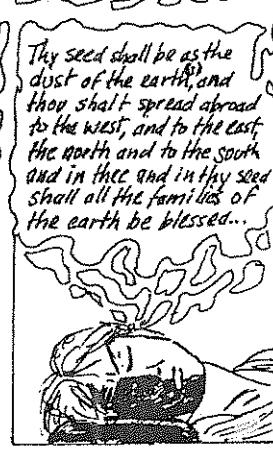

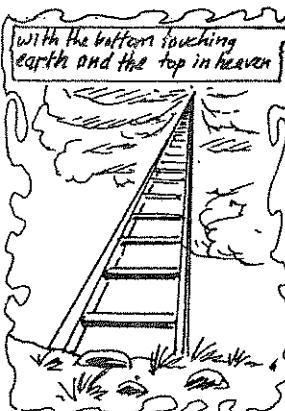

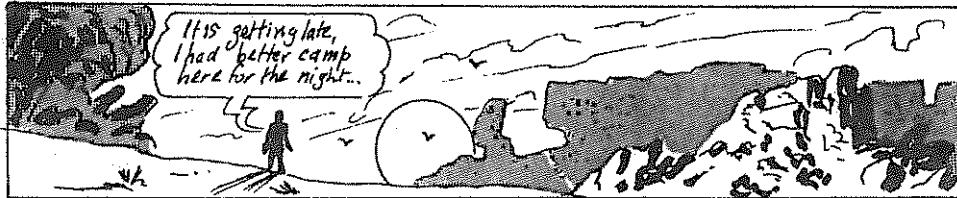

After hearing this Rebekah went to Jacob...

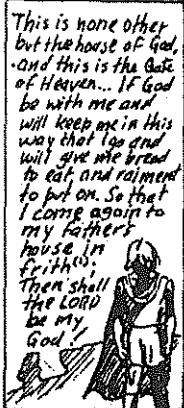

But before he left, his father passed on Abraham's blessing to Jacob and warned him not to take a wife from the Canaanites but of Laban, who is of the same stock... Thus Jacob set off!

(i) peace

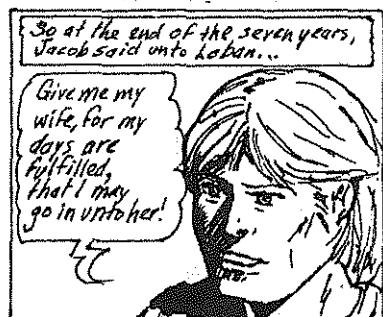

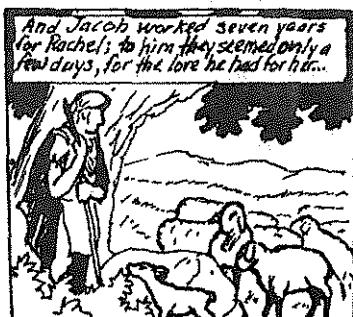

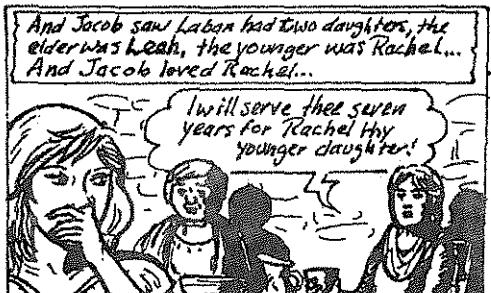

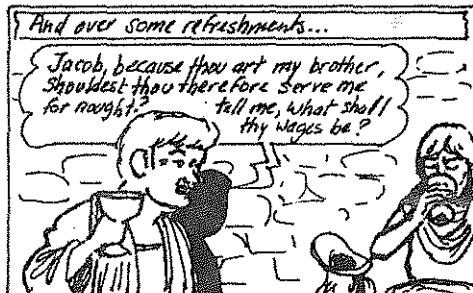

Then he poured oil onto the stone he used as head-rest, and set it up for a pillar...

This, Jacob's stone will re-appear further on within this book...

His wayfaring ended when he met Rachel, the daughter of Laban, tending his sheep...

I have wandered far... I am Jacob, your father's brother; I am thus Rebekah's son...

And Laban gathered all the men of the place and made a feast...

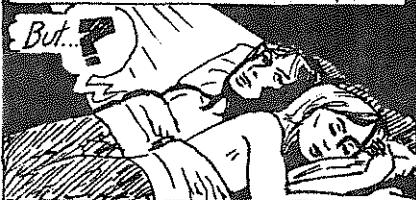

At the evenings end, Laban brings the bride to Jacobs room...

He later tells his handmaid, Zilpah, that she is to be the bride's handmaid...

And in the morrow of the next day...

Thou art not Rachel but Leah, what is all this?

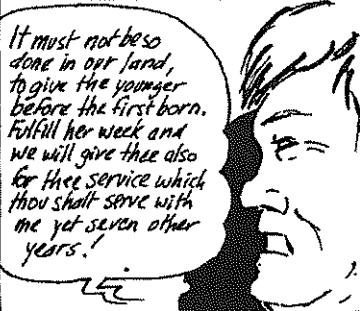

So Jacob went to Laban...

What is this thou hast done unto me? Did I not serve with thee for Rachel, wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

It must not be done in our land, to give the younger before the first born. Fulfill her week and we will give thee also for thee service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years!

And Jacob did so, and Laban gave him Rachel also for his wife. Laban also gave to Rachel his handmaid, Bilhah, to be her handmaid. But Rachel was barren; and Leah bare Jacob 6 children in all...

But because Rachel could bear Jacob no children, she envied her sister, Leah...

Give me children or else I die!

Am I in God's stead who bath with held from thee the fruit of the womb?

Behold my maid Bilhah, go in unto her, and she shall bear upon my knees that I may also have children by her!

So she gave him Bilhah and Jacob went in unto her...

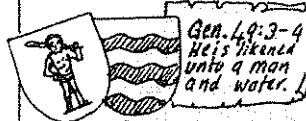

And Bilhah conceived, in turn she bare him two sons. When Leah saw she left bearing she gave Jacob her maid, Zilpah, who also bore two sons. Later Rachel bore two sons. In all Jacob had twelve sons...

(1) Can I act as if I were God.

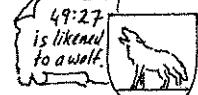

(1) Unicorn

And God renamed Jacob, he was to be known as 'Israel' (meaning 'Ruling with God'), his offspring are thus called Israelites. Clearly this is a name of a race and has nought in common with the word 'Jews'. 'Jews' is a title given to anyone following the religious cult of Jewry... Below, Jacob's 12 sons from whence came twelve (later 13) tribes.

Gen. 49:3-4
He is likened unto a man and water.

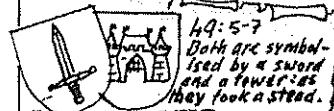

When Jacob blessed his sons he gave prophecies for each and gave symbols whereby we can identify their offspring today...

49:27
is likened to a wolf.

BENJAMIN

REUBEN

49:5-7
Both are symbolised by a sword and a tower - as they took a steed.

SIMEON & LEVI

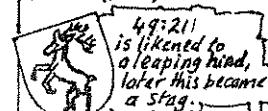

49:9-11
Is likened to a lion; 3 lions and a grape-vine - and holds the sceptre.

JUDAH

(Judea - not Jews)

49:17
he is like a serpent or a (white) horse.

DAN (Danes)

49:21
is likened to a leaping hind, later this became a stag.

GAD

49:19

is likened to a troop of horsemen.

ASHER

49:20

he is symbolised by a cup or goblet to hold royal dainties.

NAPHTALI

ZEBULUN

49:14

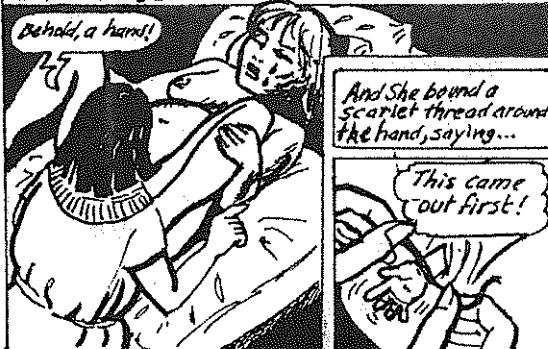

he is a strong ass carrying two burdens.

Between 1800 to 1400 BC, the tribes of Israel dwelt in Egypt where much evidence shows their involvement in the designing and building of the Great Pyramid. The works of Moses and his laws (which should still be cleaved to today) are popular teachings. However, what is overlooked today is the history of Judah's twin sons. The Bible singled their births out for special attention. One of the twins carried forth a kingly line, which is still thriving today. But it was the birth's outcome that has led to an amazing history!

Gen. 38. And it came to pass... that behold, twins were in her womb. And it came to pass when she travailed, the mid-wife said...

Behold, a hand!
And She bound a scarlet thread around the hand, saying...

This came out first!

(2) Royal

But the hand (red with blood) went back in and the other brother came out instead. Because of this he was named Pharez...

And it was pronounced that Pharez was the true first born and thus heir from whom the official Davidic Kingsly House would descend. Zarah and his offspring refuted the claim. It was his great grandsons, Calcol and Dara who were planning to split from the rest of the Israelites.

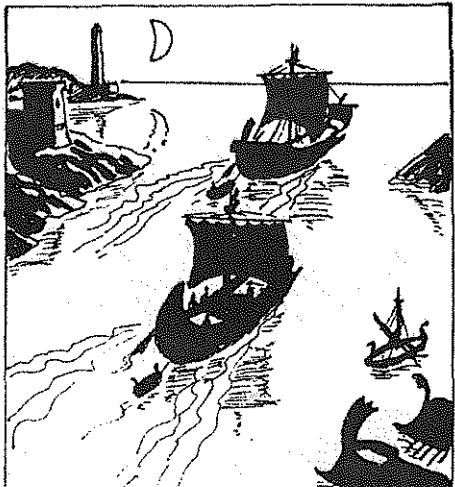

And late one night...

And at another quay, Dara and his folk are boarding.

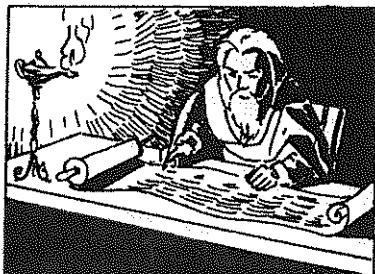

So the ships slipped out of harbour...

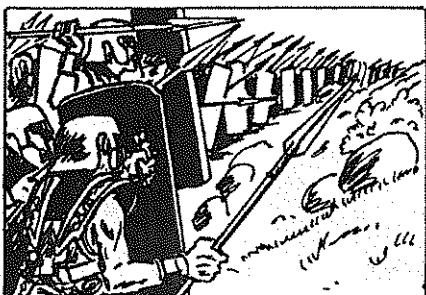

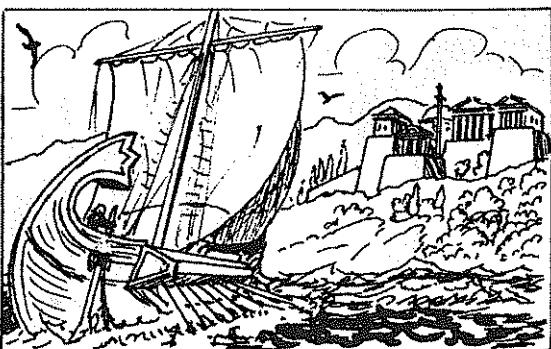

The ships led by Dara (he is also known as Darda or Dardanus) landed on north west Turkey and Troy was founded, and it's rickety! The body of water lining the shores of Troy even today, bears Darda's (Dara) name, Dardanelles. Those under Calcol fared to a land we call Spain. They named it IBERIA after their forefather Eber (Heber). And on the Banks of the Ebro (Eber) River...

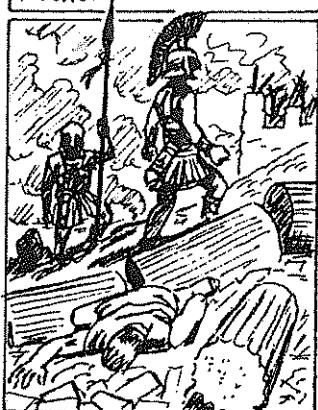

King Eolus, who reigned over those in Iberia between 1368 to 1335 B.C. began writing the 'Chronicles of Eri'. He put down much of Israel's history which was passed on by word of mouth.

Meanwhile the Ricks of Troy was about to be firdone by Greece ... 1183 B.C.

And so the Zara-Israelites of Troy fled, with the Greek host claiming the firdone ricks!

But the zara-Israelites in Spain were also forced to leave. They head for a new land of Eber, an Island they named after Eber, 'HIBERNIA' (now called Ireland). Taking with them, after some 500 years in Spain, the emblem of the Red Hand and Thread ...

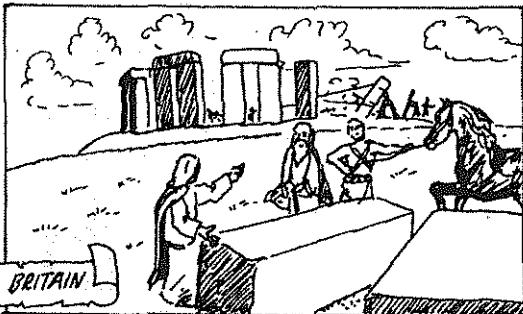

Note: Troy was founded in 1520 B.C.
Brutus of Troy came to Britain in 1102 B.C.

(1) Israelites of Judah offspring

It was 1600 BC when these Israelites founded the "Kingdom of Ulster, one of five Kingdoms in HIBERNIA (IRELAND). The Zarath-Judahite emblem they used is today known as the Red Hand of Ulster.

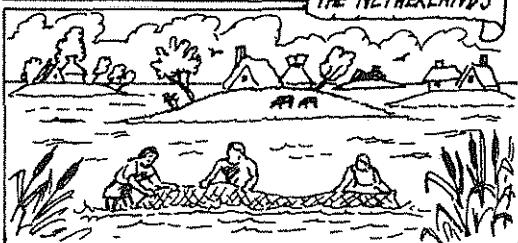

Meanwhile, the fleeing Trojan Judahites⁽²⁾ led by Prince Brutus, worked their way into Italy, onto the British Isles: around 1100 B.C.

Many settled along the tick in coastal areas such as the Netherlands. Although their emblem was not a red hand, they used the red of blood and combined that with the traditional Judah emblem, a lion. So they carried a Red Lion, today we find this as the Lion of Holland and Scotland.

THE NETHERLANDS

But the greater number of Israelites were in Egyptian bondage. Their great outgoing into Palestine, under Moses (NOT A JEW) took place ± 1400 B.C.

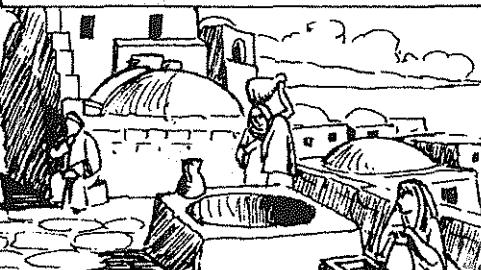

All these Israelites, God sows as his "wife"...

"For thy Maker is thine husband" Isaiah 54:5

And so after Moses' death, Joshua brought the greater number into Canaanland (Palestine). The Israelites were told to obey God's laws and drive out, even force, the Canaanites so they would not turn the Israelites from God's laws. But the Israelites failed to drive them out...

King David came to throne ± 1050 BC. The land of Israel grew strong with 10% of the dwellers under arms, so the whole population then was 10 to 15 million. His son, Solomon, took over after David's (not a Jew) death...

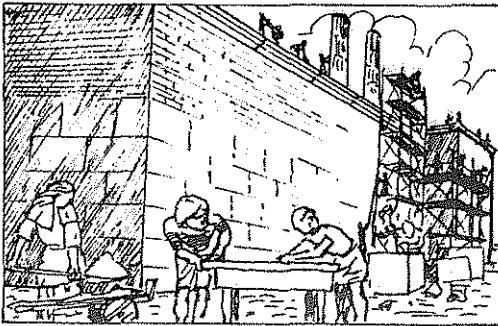

But after Solomon's death came a shocking blow...

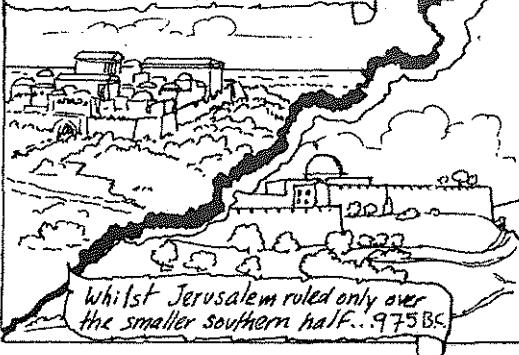

The northern kingdom became known as the House of Israel; the southern as the House of Judah... Rivalry brought, corruption and wars between the two

(i) peace

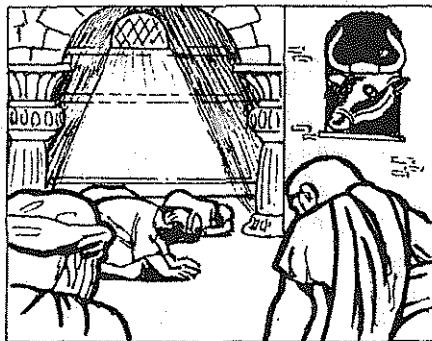

An age of frith⁽¹⁾ dawned on Israel during his 40 year rule with the building of the great temple to God...

The ten northern tribes split and made their own capital in Samaria.

They even worshipped the false gods of the Canaanites in their midst; false religions known as Baal worship...

(2) Baal, meaning any other religion other than the teachings of the OLD & NEW TESTAMENT. Therefore even Christian Churches who teach only from the N.T. are Baal Churches.

(1) means also religions (2) God divorcing Israel and then driving her out of the land.

God raised Men such as Jeremiah and Hosea (not Jesus) to warn both 'Houses' of the outcome of their sin, that of National adultery; Choosing other Gods⁽³⁾ when God claimed Israel as his wife...

Plead with your mother, plead for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband⁽²⁾; I will make her a wilderness And I will have no mercy upon her children, thus saith the Lord (see Hosea)
ch. 2

Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths...

And she shall follow after her lovers, but shall not find them,
then shall she say.
I will go and return
to my first husband,
for then was it better
with me than now!

Through Hosea, we see God saying the House of Israel will never go back to the land, she will be driven,
thus not back to Palestine...

foretelling here that once sent away,
Israel will learn
these false gods
are of no help
and will seek for their true
God...

Therefore, I will allow her, and bring her into the wilderness⁽³⁾
and speak comfortably to her...

And I will sow her unto the earth, I will say to them
which were not my people (4), Thou art
my people and they shall say, Thou art
my God!

Thus God will give her new lands and care for her then.

Here God promised them land across the earth and once again, thus divorced, he will call his folk, and they will worship him.

Thus the first part of the prophecies began,...
(± 740 B.C.) to become a reality...

SOUND THE ATTACK!

The carting off, of the Israelites by the Assyrians, carried on till 680 BC, into Assyrian held land. Many millions of Israelites were uprooted!

They were taken chiefly to the Caspian provinces of that riche under the Assyrian kings; Tiglath-Pileser (Pul), Shanonester, Sargon and Esar-Haddon...

(3) this is another wilderness, another place without dwellers. This area(s), will be shown further on...

(4) Meaning: Israel which God had divorced.

(1) not a Jew but a Judahite-Israelite.

To control newly won land, the Assyrians repopulated Israel with folk from Media and Persia. (By the time of Christ, these 'outlanders' were known as Samaritans) (2Kings 17:24)

But the Israelites in Judah also followed the ways of the Canaanites. Under Sennacherib all Judah was also deported into Assyria, only the walledstead of Jerusalem was left. ± 700 B.C.

Zedekiah⁽¹⁾ was the last King in Judah. In the ninth year of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, the Babylonian king came with all his host (army) against Jerusalem...

And they built forts around the stead... And the stead was beleaguered in the eleventh year of Zedekiah's rule ...

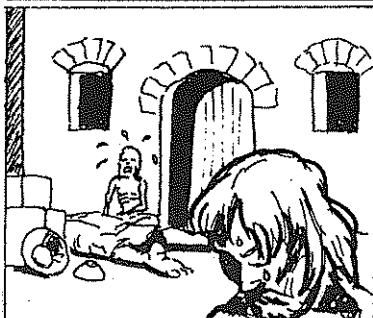

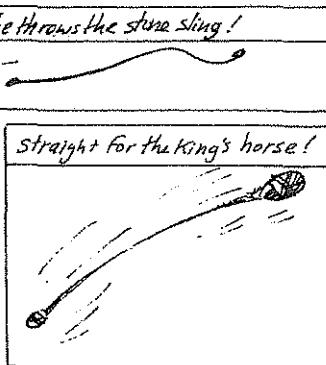

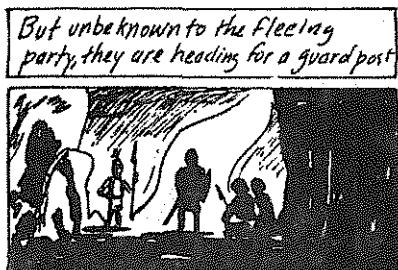

And in the 14th month of the beleaguering, the stead fell due to starvation caused by food being cutoff.

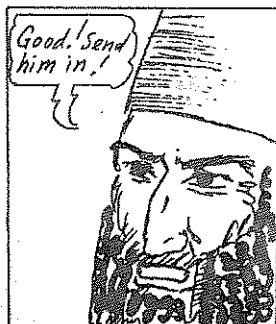

Sire, the foe is smashing down our stead, we must flee!

There seems no choice!

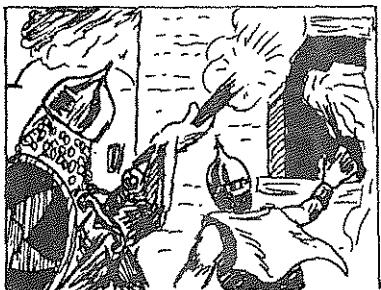

So tonight we will flee through the gate of my garden...

Meanwhile, the captain of the Babylonian guard with Chaldean soldiers set fire to the Lord's house and all the dwellings in the stead...

Of all the population of the town, only the very poor were not carried off; they were forced onto the land...

This small handful of Israelites were left to be vine dressers and be husband men...

Over them, Nebuchadnezzar appointed a ruler. But when this ruler was slain, together with his men, the remnant Israelites feared for their lives...

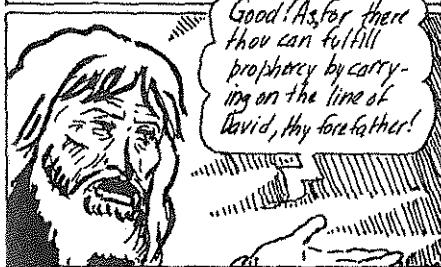

Living amongst the poor were Zedekiah's two daughters, the crown prince Tamar, and her younger sister Scota. The prophet Jeremiah and his faithful friend Baruch!

Thus must we flee and join our fellow men in the Northern Isles...

For once O Jeremiah we shall hearken to thy word...

The Babylonians did not understand Israelite tradition whereby, if there are no male heirs left, the birthright is then carried on through the females, a tradition still in use in northern European kingly households...

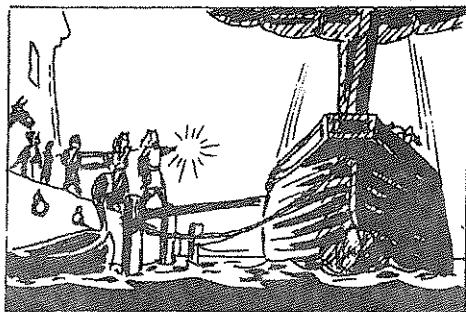

So that night they headed for Tahpanhes in Egypt; quietly slipping out of the beleaguered land.

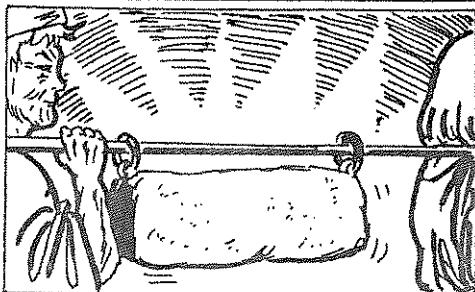

(1) 89th Psalm: "Hearken unto my voice, O my people; I have made a covenant with my chosen (Israelites—not the Jews) I have sworn unto David my servant, thy seed I will establish forever, and build up thy throne to all generations... My covenant I will not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David, His seed shall endure forever, and his throne as the sun before me."

(1) Not Jewish

And not long after coming to Egypt, Jeremiah, his friend and Zedekiah's daughters board an awaiting ship...

Taking onboard one very sacred cargo! The Bethel Stone, which Jacob, the father of all Israelites, used as a headrest when God spake unto him in the wilderness...

Thus the long seafare begins, taking the Judahite¹¹ princess to where her kinsmen of Zarah-Judahite offspring landed many years before. (See pages 23-24-25)

And after some weeks, Ireland comes in sight!

(1) valuable (2) beautiful

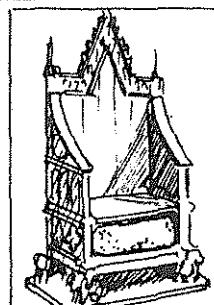

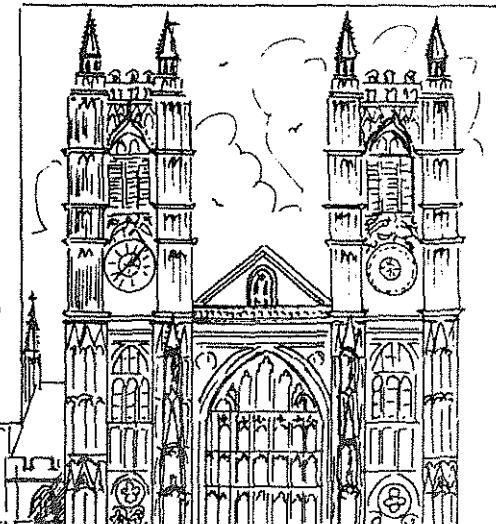

After a stop in Iberia, (sailing on a ship which belonged to the 'Iberian Danaoi') they landed at Carrickfergus in 583 B.C., Ireland. The princes carried a gold banner with a red lion, the sign of the Judah tribe, the men unloaded a chest of worthless⁽¹⁾ and of course the 'sacred stone' Jacob's pillow!

It wasn't long before the Irish (Judahite) king understood the importance of the landing party. After some time the sheen⁽²⁾ princes wed the Irish king and founded the Throne of David in the Isles. The king being crowned over the stone...

One thousand years later in 504 A.D., Fergus the Great founded the kingly line and Throne in Scotland. In 1296 the stone was taken to England by Edward the First. It is now in the Coronation Chair, Westminster Abbey where Queen Elisabeth II was crowned over just as all her forbearers. Just as her foregoers, She too is a direct offspring from the line of King David!

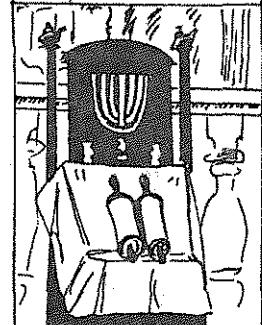

(1) empire (2) city

But let us go back to 586 B.C. And just after the fall of Jerusalem; to Babylon, the Canaanite (Edomite) ricke.⁽¹⁾ Babylon had since risen to become the new might in the area and in turn, ruled over many areas of the former Assyrian ricke. Israelites living in former Assyrian areas were then joined by new waves of Israelites deported by the smaller Babylonian uprooting. Many went to live in the northern out posts to get away from pagan Canaanite practices of the Babylonians.

These practices were felt more in the steady⁽²⁾ areas and less in remote provinces where the millions of Israelites lived. Around this time, Canaanite scribes were putting their vile traditions into writing...

These vile writings became known as the Babylonian Talmud...

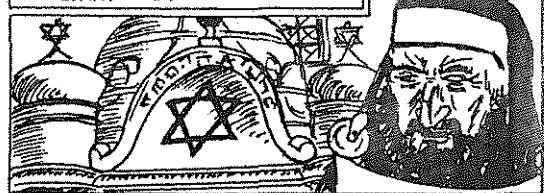

Being greatly outnumbered in the steeds by Edomites, the Judahites began to take on Talmudic ideas and even went into Edomite Synagogues, which Christ called the synagogues of Satan.

It was not long before the name Judahite became shortened to Jew and as these Jews followed Talmudic traditions the term became one of religion and not race, so the Canaanites were also called Jews.

And so the religion of the Jews was born, having nothing to do with kinglyhood.

Their emblem? The old witches hex: a form of swastika. This became known as the Seal of Solomon!⁽³⁾!

So after the 70 year bondage, less than 50,000 Israelites went back to Jerusalem; going with them, Canaanite (Semitic) preachers (the Pharisees).

They were the only ministers in charge of Israelite faith in the area, right up till the first coming of Christ.

Although the Pharisees clung to the Israelite O.T., they never really believed in God and thus carried on expanding the Talmudic writings... When the Israelite (the small remnant), arrived in the old land, they found it already populated!

I am afraid it looks as if we can not shift into our grand father's house, that Canaanite has it now...

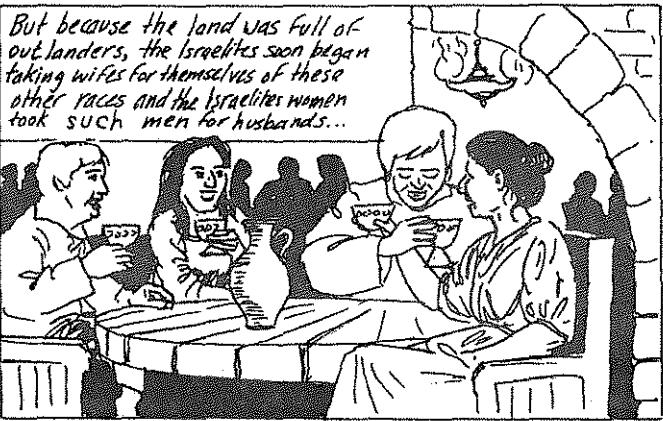

(3) also the Star of David, but it is wrongly assumed it was the star of the kingly King David. The term star of David came about more than 1000 years later when a Polish Jew whose first name was David, began reviving the ancient hex symbol.

BY the middle of the 5th century B.C., the whole of Israel, (Israel and Judah) was in permanent banishment. Only a small residue, less than 5% of all Israelites returned to rebuild the Temple and the steed of Jerusalem...

But because the land was full of outlanders, the Israelites soon began taking wives for themselves of these other races and the Israelites women took such men for husbands...

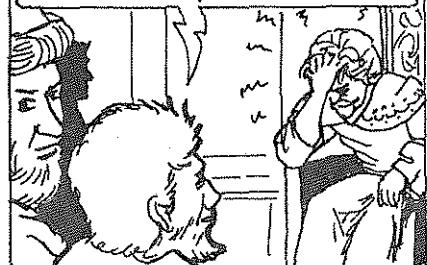

Though, not all Israelites rebelled against God's laws. One such person was Ezra. It was his task to bring these Israelites back onto the right track. One day, some princes came up to him...

The folk of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not parted themselves from the folk of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites and other races of the land. (see book of Ezra)

For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons so that the holy Seed* have mingled themselves with the folk of these lands. Yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in the trespass⁽¹⁾)

And Ezra set astonished at the Israelites foot-hardly will to socially mix, breaking the law of God which demands them to be in a state of apart-hood, (apartheid)...

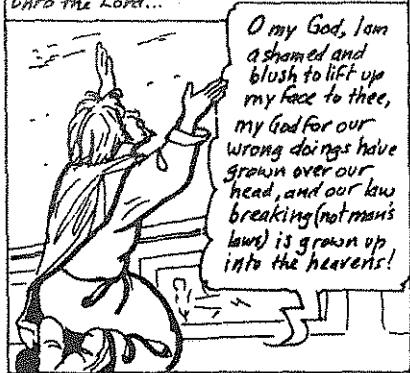

* Israelite race
(1) breaking of God's Laws.

(1) as it is, even today

(2) can be likened to Colonizing

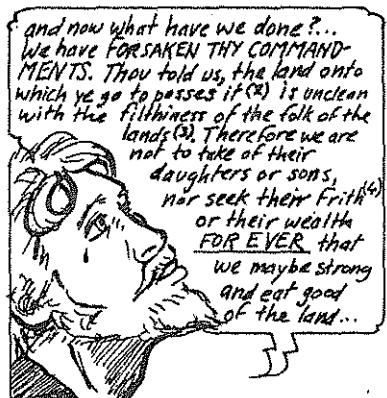

And that evening, Ezra began to pray unto the Lord...

O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God for our wrong doings have grown over our head, and our law breaking (not man's law) is grown up into the heavens!

Since the days of our fathers have we been greatly breaking thy laws even till today, our Kings and priests⁽¹⁾ have lead us into captivity and a spoil and to confusion as it is this day, even so, thou hast given mercy unto us and has not forsaken us and given us some freedom again from our bondage...

and now what have we done?... we have FORSAKEN THY COMMANDMENTS. Thou told us, the land onto which ye go to possess if⁽²⁾ is unclean with the filthiness of the folk of the lands⁽³⁾. Therefore we are not to take of their daughters or sons, nor seek their frit⁽⁴⁾s or their wealth FOR EVER that we may be strong and eat good of the land...

So again we see the basis of apartheid. Commanded by God. It is also meant to be kept "FOR EVER"!

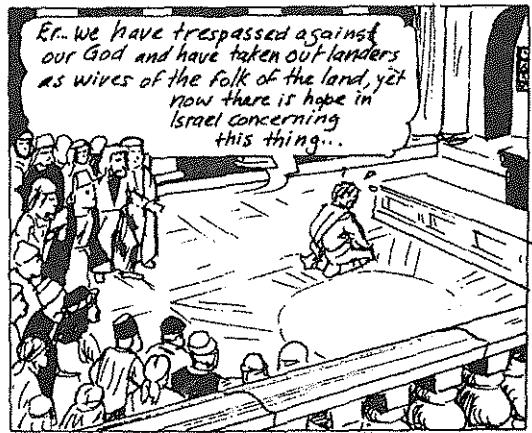

And to have the land as an ownership handed down by the Lord⁽⁵⁾ for our children forever...

O Lord God of Israel, thou art righteous: for we remain yet escaped as it is this day, behold we are before thee in our trespasses; for we cannot stand before thee because of this!

But after his prayer to the Lord, a great throng of sorrowful Israelites came up to Ezra

(3) practices contrary those sought after by God.

(4) peace (5) inheritance.

(i) agreement

"Now let us therefore make a covenant⁽¹⁾ with God to put away all the wives and such as are born of them... and let it be done according to the (God's) law..."

And Ezra arose and said to the chief priests and the rest of Israel there...

Swear, therefore unto the Lord

We do truthfully swear!

And so the non Israelite women and their offspring and non Israelite husbands were sent away...

But what of the millions of so called 'lost' Israelites, those of the Assyrian banishment? Many of those who once lived in and around the area of Gilead in former Israel were known as the Gileats. Attacks by the Medes and Persians drove them north-easterly around the Black Sea into Bulgaria. These Gileats had their name shortened to Gills or Celts!

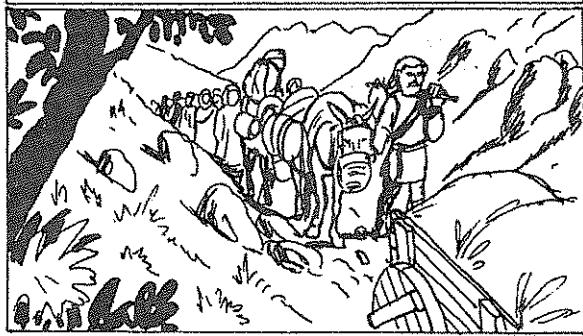

Between 650-500 B.C. together with those of the tribe of Dan, they followed the course of a wide river, taking them deeper into the heart of Europe. This river's name reminds us of the event as it is called after these Dans, The Danube...

In and around the northern areas of Persia, Israelites dwelling there, were also under Mede and Persian attacks...

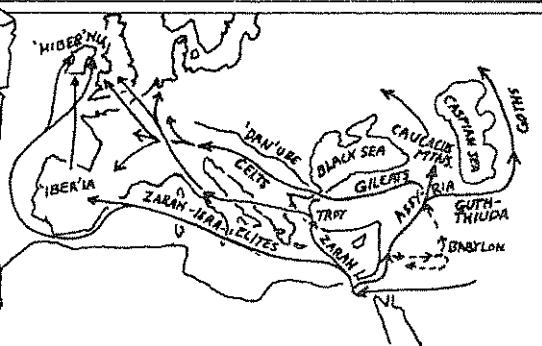

These Israelites were driven through the Caucasus Mountains. From thence they were known as the Caucasians! Around 600-500 B.C.

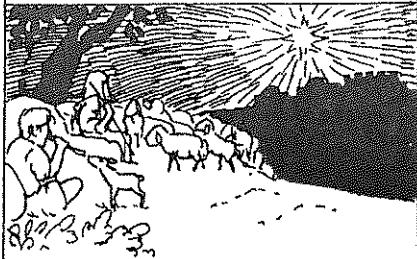

Other Israelites of the same area wandered around the Caspian Sea. They were known as "Guta-Thiuda", meaning; "Great God's Troops". The name was shortened to Guta or Goth (Goths). Both the Celts and Goths spoke variations of Hebrew dialects. The Romans named the Goths, "Germans". Germans, being Latin for "genuine". The Celtic-Israelites had by this time colonized most of a once near empty Europe by 500 B.C., rejoining their Zarah Israelite kinsfolk in Britain.

Israelite wanderings so far...

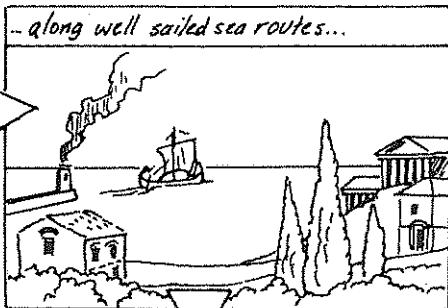

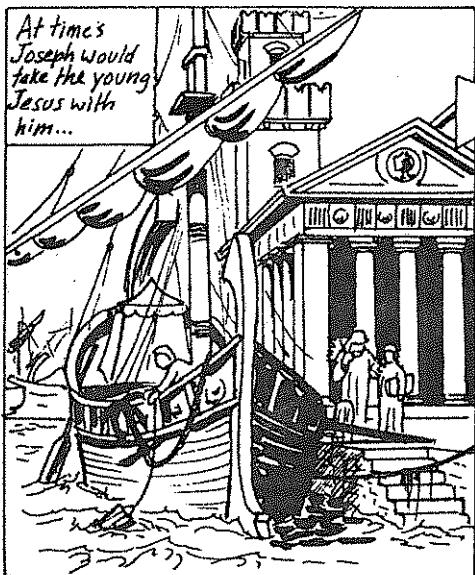

Some 500 years later in Galilee a very special Israelite was born. Records show this birth took place, most likely, on September 23rd., 12 B.C.. The new born was God manifesting himself as man, born of Mary the wife of Joseph; born as Jesus and who is called Christ!

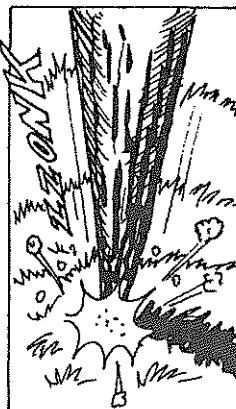

He grew up a Galilean (not a Jew). Much of his ministry is well understood by most, but some events are glossed over by modern Churches. It is these vital events this book delves into. His uncle, Joseph of Arimathea should also be well known... Trade routes to Britain were well established at this time, chiefly for metals, tin in particular. Joseph became wealthy by shipping tin from Cornwall and Somerset in Britain to Mediterranean ports. He was thus very familiar with the British Isles.

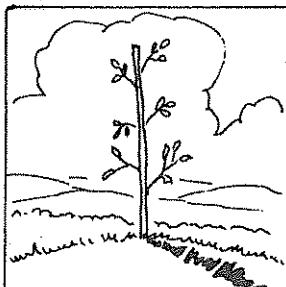

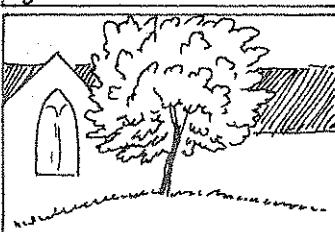

It was near Glastonbury that Joseph of Arimathea, thrust his walking stave into the ground which he took with him from Palestine.

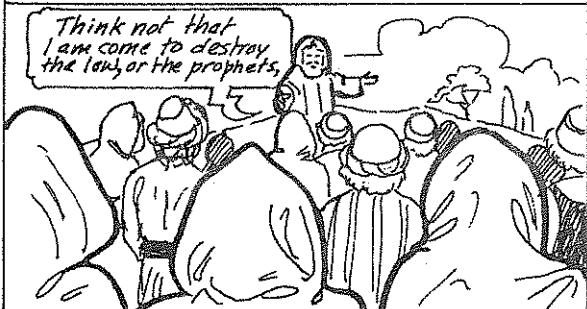

The wonder that took place was that this stave took root and began to grow!

This unusual thorn tree, after almost 2000 years, is alive today. More unusual is that it blooms twice a year when all others of its kind only bloom once. Twice yearly, blooms are cut from it and given to the Queen; even this day in line with age old tradition...

But let us go back to Palestine, to the time when Christ held the sermon on the mount. Here he clearly taught the laws of God, given to Israel through Moses were never to be axed!

For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled...

See what he has to say to any Christian and minister who teaches the Mosaic laws are axed:

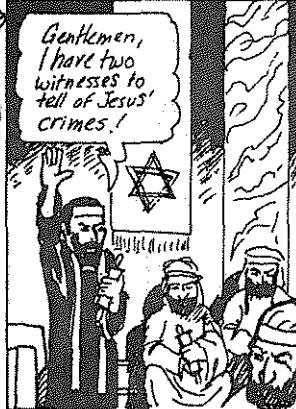

Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the Kingdom of heaven!

(1) These laws include putting to death murderers, rapists, and interest-rate chargers, also forbids interracial mixing and much more...

Just as today, when ministers teach we all go to a cloudy heaven after death; and thus withhold from us the truth that the Kingdom of Heaven will be on Earth (as is stated in the Lord's prayer Thy kingdom come), the Pharisees did the same. Christ warned them "Ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men." Christ accused them of making themselves rich and pretending to the outside world of being law-abiding. Also that they love to be lifted above other men, wishing to be called "Rabbi, Rabbi!"

It is well known fact that from Phariseeism comes Judaism. Today's priests are as bad if they claim to be a Judeo-Christian, for Judaism is Phariseeism! Christ called such hypocrites and a den of vipers! These Pharisees had to find a way to get rid of Jesus. But because Christ only spoke the truth, the only thing they could do was to trump up a condemning lie and make this false hood believed by others. Thus they arranged for two men to bear false witness.

(1) destroy

And two false witnesses came before this mockery of a court.

And the high priest arose and said to Jesus...

Answerest thou nothing? What is it which these witness against thee?!

I beseech thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God...

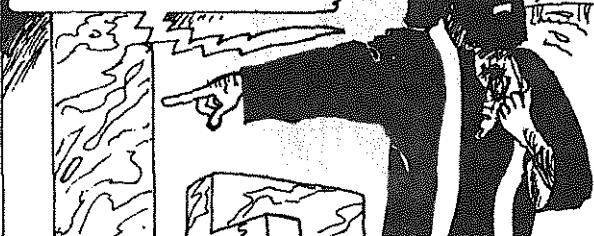

(2) Christ confirming heirs.

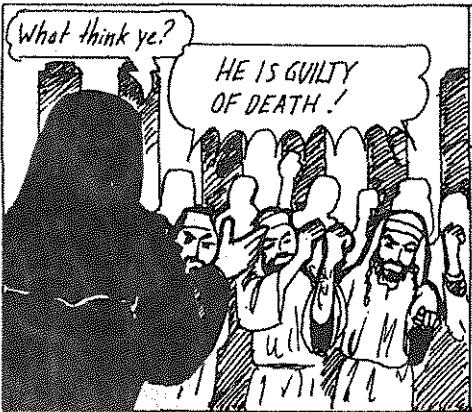

Thou hast said⁽²⁾. Nevertheless I say unto you, thereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power and coming in the clouds of heaven...

Then the Jewish high priest rent at his clothes saying...

He hath spoken BLASPHEMY! What further need have we of witnesses?!

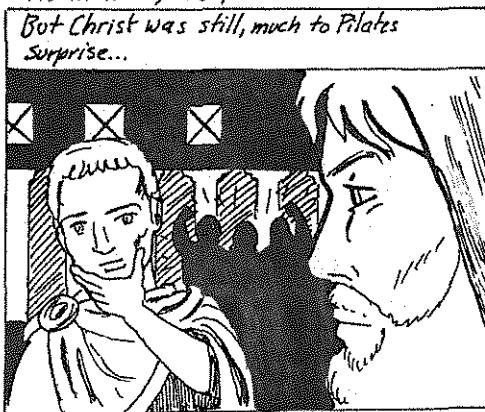

The Jews needed the Roman authorities to put Christ to death, but the Romans would not come into local religious customs, so the, so-called blaspheming of Christ would not interest the Romans. Thus another plan had to be made up. They knew that anyone claiming to be a king over a group of folk in Roman occupied territories could face a Roman death penalty. Thus the Jewish leaders pretended that Jesus had claimed to be a king of the Jews. By using such a lie, the Jews could have the Romans put Christ to death... By the way, Christ was not rejected by his folk, only by the Jews, a group for which Christ had nothing but contempt.

(1) in other words, You say so but not I.

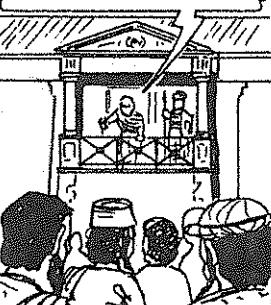

(c) Judgement

So, before the public, according to custom, the Roman governor would ask the folk who to set free.

The well known prisoner called Barabas or Jesus, which is called Christ?

And when Pilate sat down on the dooms¹ seat, his wife came to him and said...

Have thou nothing to do with that just man for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him...

But the chief priests and elders persuaded the crowd to insist Barabas to be set free...

Whether of the twain will ye that I set free unto you?

What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?

Why what evil hath he done?

When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but rather a riot was made, he took water and washed his hands...

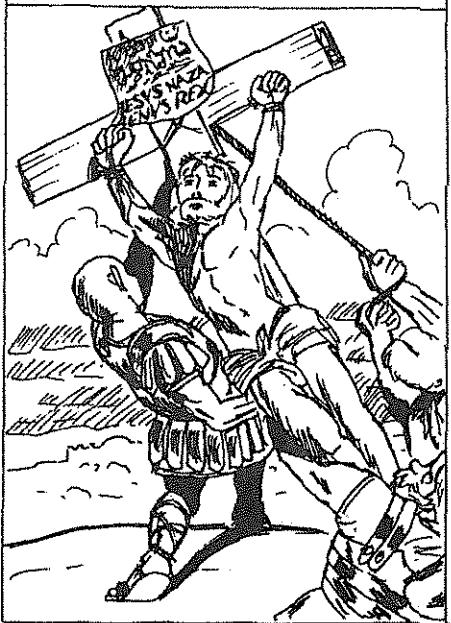

Then the crowd answered... His blood be on us and on our children!

And so Barabas was freed, Christ flogged and made ready for crucifixion...

And set over his head the accusation, the cause of his death, "This is Jesus king of the Jews." Thus we see that the Bible does not say he is the King of the Jews, instead, it shows the accusation is a false one so that he would be put to death. Therefore, the Jews without knowing, fulfilled many prophecies confirming Christ to be the Son of God!

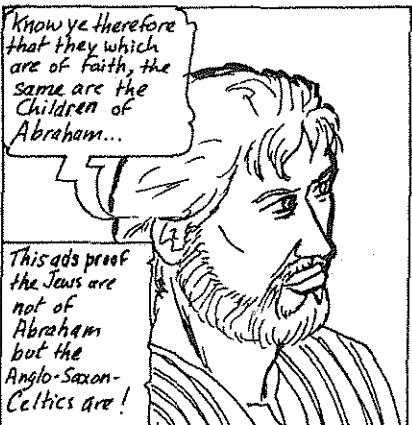

The rest should be well known to most, but what is misunderstood by many, is the matter of the laws; Should we still live by them? Christ said we should (see P.40). Yet our ministers say we are freed from them, using such texts as in Gal.3. For that reason we will have a look at the verses in question, in Galatians 3. Here Paul is speaking to Israelites in Galatia...

Knowing that a man is not justified (made righteous) by the works of the law (the sacrifices) but by the faith of Jesus Christ, for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified!

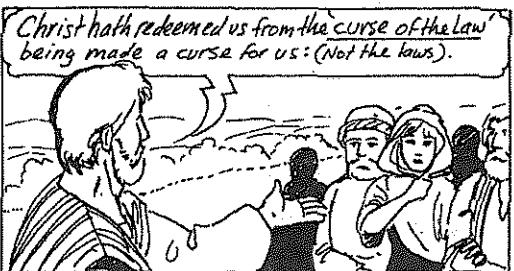

Therefore for the Jews to be made righteous they must make all the sacrifices (the curse or works, of the law) to make good; but man's sins are so great that no amount of sacrifice will do. But unlike the Jews, Christian Israelites do believe in Christ, thus the efforts (the curse) to set right our sins are lifted. (!)

(!) do not confuse curses with laws.

This adds proof
the Jews are not of Abraham
but the Anglo-Saxon-Celtics are!

Christ hath redeemed us from the 'curse of the Law' being made a curse for us: (Not the laws).

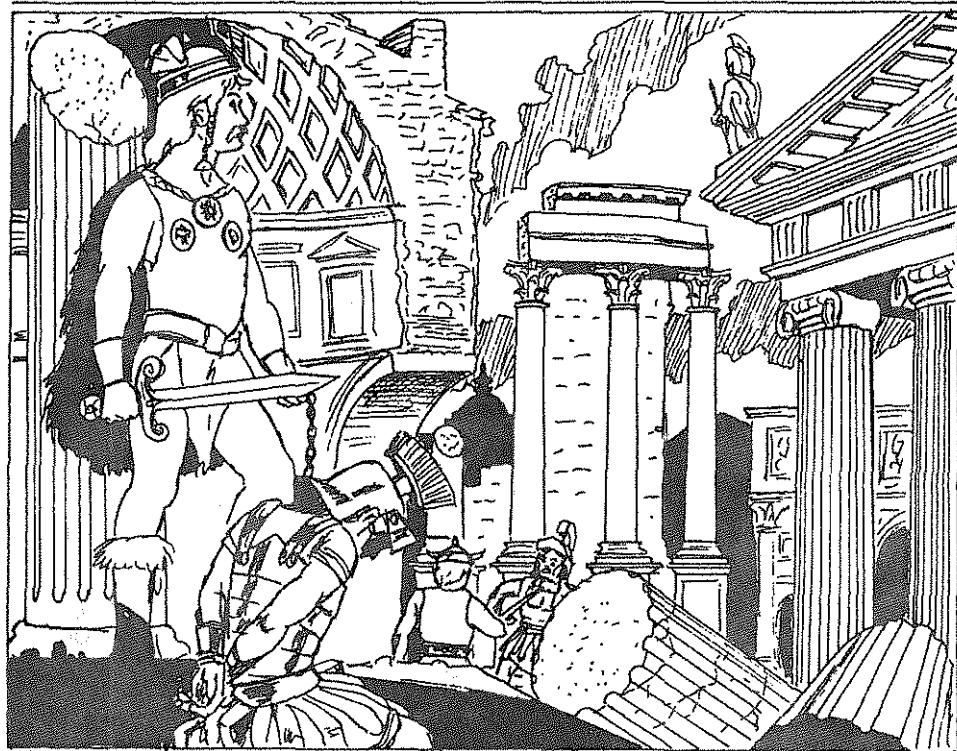

Christian Israelites are thus freed from making sacrifices. The sacrifices or the curse, in modern terms, a 'fine' or goal sentence for law breaking. If we are bailed out, the sentence (the curse) is lifted. This does not mean the laws are also lifted. "God forbid". Jesus paid off with his blood, being the ultimate offering, all our fines.

The Israelites underwent almost 1000 years of tribulation since the first breakaway group from Egypt. The Gothic Israelites, (see p.38) settling just north of the Caspian Sea, were driven to the west when the warlike Huns of east began storming them. Thus driving the Goths into Western Europe. These shifts took place between the 3rd & 5th centuries A.D. In turn these Gothic Israelites came up against the Romans, clashing as they moved against the Roman borders...

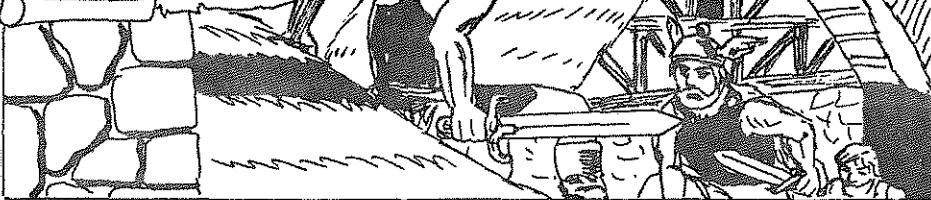

(1) empire

In 410 AD, Visigoth, King Alaric, overran Rome, ending the Western (Pagan - despite the Catholic Church) Roman Empire. These Goths are often labelled as barbarians, but as "Great God's Troops"; it was their duty to sack anti Christ Rome, home of one of the world's cruellest cultures...

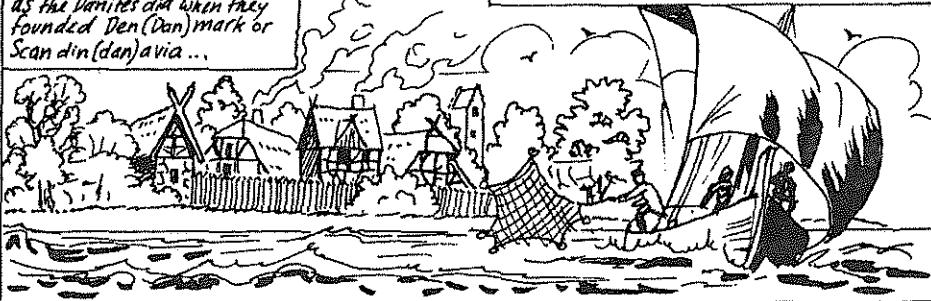

* Visigoth = West (goth) Great God's Troops.

At the same time (the hundreds of years of being apart brought changes between Celtic and Gothic Israelites) the Goths moved into Celtic lands. Their respective Hebrew dialects (Gothic & Celtic) also drifted apart, and the differences only furthered the clashes. ± 400 A. D.

After awhile, these clashes died down... Some Israelite groups cleaved to their ancient titles, such as the Danites did when they founded Den(Dan)mark or Scandin(dan)avia...

Others clung to the title of Judah, or better said the Gothic form of the word Jute. They settled in the areas of the Netherlands and West Germany...

Then of course there were other Gothic Israelites who named themselves after their early forfathers; Isaac (Amos 7:9,16). They were the Isaac Sons => Saxons => Saxons.

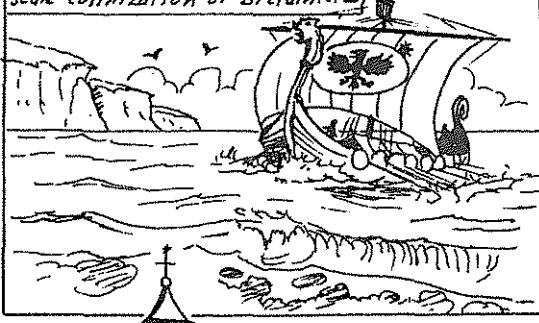

Other Israelite tribes became known as the Anglos, Friesians, Longbeards (Lombardi) and others...

* Viking emblem on sail: Symbol of the camp of Dan (Dan, Naphtali & Asher).

Then in several stages since the middle of the 5th century A.D., Germanic Israelites (Jutes, Friesians, Anglos and Saxons began another large scale colonization of Britain...)

From then onwards, these Israelites lands developed highly sophisticated cultures. God promised them colonies throughout the world. Prophecies related to this promise began to be fulfilled...

In 1610 Holland founded New Netherlands, later known as part of the USA. It was from Delfshaven in Holland from whence the Mayflower and Speedwell forth fare for the 'New World'... *

Not much later in 1652, Holland (1) planted the seed for the Cape Colony. As with the USA, the British followed bringing together the various tribes of Jacob... forming a oneness...

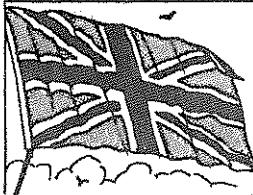

The Israelites were to keep themselves apart from the folk of the land. In South Africa this law is headed to in the form of apartheid...

(1) Holland together with Flanders and West Germany are largely of Judah, Zebulon and Issachar stock.

47 * It is worth noting that the Dutch were aware of their Israelite beginning in the 17th C, this is evident in Vs 8 of the Dutch National Anthem.

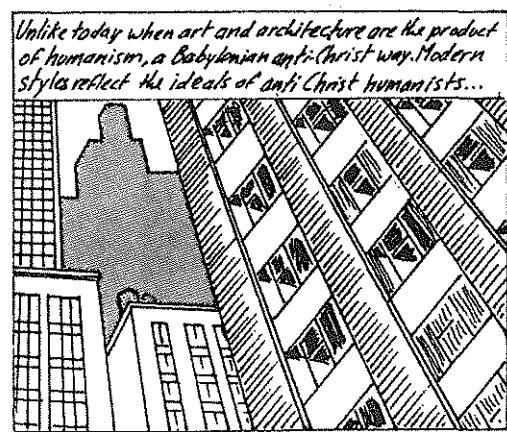

Britain's flag, the Union Jack is symbolic of the oneness, the unifying of several Kingdoms; kingdoms whose folk are of Jacob-Israel. Thus a oneness or a union of Jacob... For short, "Union Jack"...

In turn, Israelites also flowed into Canada, Rhodesia, New Zealand and Australia...

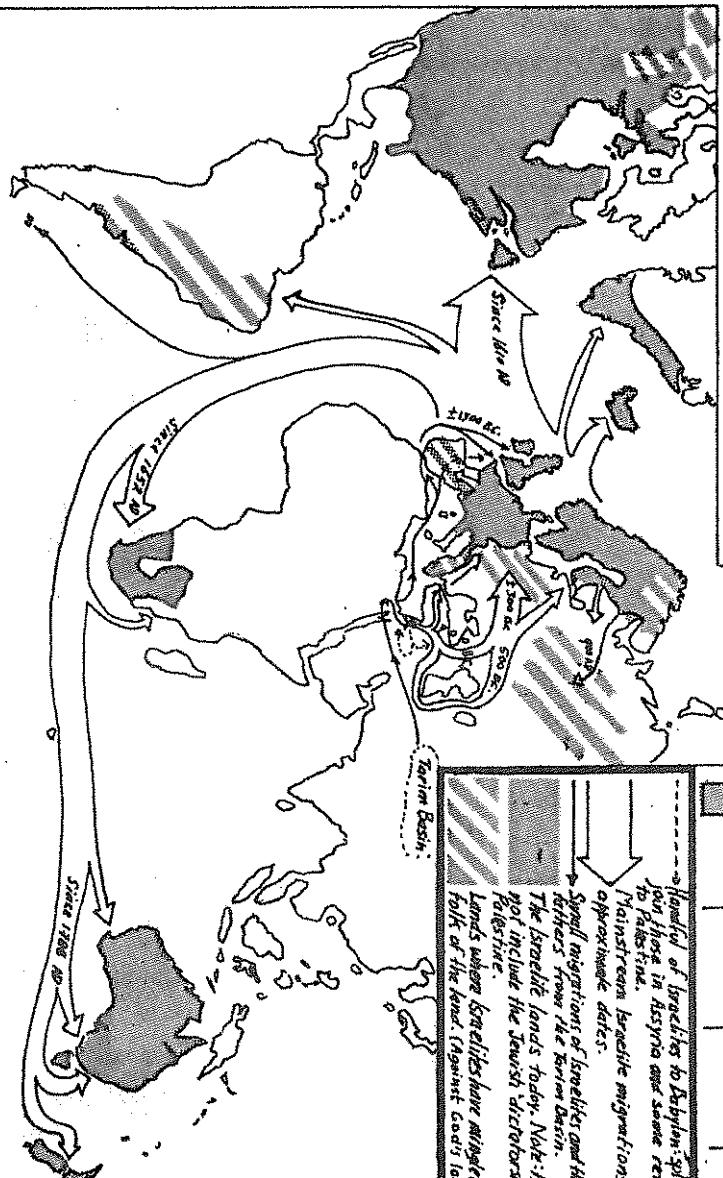

True Israelite cultures reflected God's love for beauty and orderly craftsmanship in arts and architecture as seen in foregoing ages...

Unlike today when art and architecture are the product of humanism, a Babylonian anti-Christ way. Modern styles reflect the ideals of anti-Christ humanists...

GUTA-THIUDA

GUTA-THIUDA means 'Great God's Troops' it is a title given to those Israelites after undergoing the Assyrian Banishment.

This book traces their history through the ages, right up to this present day. It uncovers their whereabouts and who they are today.

It also shows the beginnings of the Earth and other races like neither the evolutionists or church fundamentalists can. The Bible as well as ancient historical writings are consulted to give an account of history, hidden from the world by both church and state.

Guta-thiuda is not just a comic, for a start it is a study of adult standard, nor is it funny. In fact, to those with pre-conceived ideas it may even upset, as it is not aimed to pander to popular myths told in churches or schools. Facts and truths must be presented, no matter how bitter the pill is to swallow.

The beauty of the book lies in the fact that it is a pictorial account of various aspects of history. This brings the book far more to the point leaving less room for personal interpretation, a practice which tends to stray from truth.
